

Title: Teaching Artist – Visual Arts

FLSA Status: Non-Exempt

Reports to: Program Director

Date: Late 2018

Summary Description: Seeking a Part Time Teaching Artist – Visual Arts for SAY Sí - a nationally awarded creative Youth Development organization. Ideal candidate will be a committed, professional, and a creative teaching artist willing to passionately contribute to growing and shaping our visual arts programs. They will embody the mission of SAY Sí's values and belief in the transformational power of art and creativity, and will co-lead high-level weekly studio time specific to visual arts for our high school youth, and support our middle school programs as well. Through cutting-edge creative programs, students learn and put into action 21st century creative skills to forge positive change in themselves and their communities.

Major Duties and Responsibilities:

- Collaborate with co-teachers, administrators, staff, students, parents and community
- Teach and engage diverse populations across gender, age, race, cultural boundaries and different abilities
- Co-Create successful sequential lessons that are developmentally appropriate
- Assess participant learning and evaluate overall program effectiveness
- Be flexible, assess success of studios in progress and make any necessary adjustments (in teaching style, materials, equipment, timing, sequencing, teacher/staff involvement)
- Model core values and best practices in behavior and teaching
- Access resources to support own teaching, e.g. people, organizations and literature
- Encourage and support art and creativity as an agent of change and equity in all our communities
- Enforce all program rules and expectations for student performance
- Support recruitment and retention efforts
- Participate in staff administrative meetings, staff training sessions, curriculum meetings and occasional parent meetings
- Support students on creating and maintaining portfolios of creative work
- Contribute to team effort by accomplishing related results as needed

SAY Sí Teaching Artists should have/do the following:

- Degree in Visual Arts or art-form related field encouraged; work experience equivalent may be accepted
- Dedication to developing skill sets in multiple mediums
- Experience working with/teaching/mentoring youth
- Wood shop experience
- Familiarity with project-based learning, social-emotional learning skills and 21st Century Learning Skills
- Excellent presentation skills: using voice and body language to captivate audience
- Share genuine care and empathy for the population that one is teaching.
- Strong communication skills: to speak with diverse audiences and stakeholders; follow up
- Familiarity with and commitment to social justice
- Basic computer competency
- Strong project and time management, organizational and administrative skills
- Professionalism: respect for community space environment, materials, rules, schedule, and property
- Demonstrate professional practice: performs, exhibits, publishes, maintain a healthy body of work as appropriate to the art form and cultural community
- Sense of humor and open, collaborative, spirit

Schedule: Challenging 1/2 time – 3/4 schedule (with potential for growth). Afternoon through afterschool Programming/Studio hours Monday through Thursday. Saturdays 9 to 5 PM. Schedule subject to change - may include evening and Friday hours. Pay commensurate with experience. Starting rate $12 – 15/hr.

To apply: All potential candidates will need to submit their cover letter, resume, CV, recent work samples or link to online portfolio and a letter of recommendation to nicole@saysi.org. Letters - ATTN: Nicole Amri, Program Director.

Submission must be received electronically. All applicants will be reviewed and top candidates will be requested to participate in an interview. No phone calls please.